How Administrators Effectively Lead and Support Co-Teaching for Inclusive Schooling

Presenters: Patricia Renteria, Ed.S. and Barbara Piper, M.A.

This recorded webinar session on co-teaching is specifically designed for district and school administrators. The focus is on the key administrator roles and responsibilities for creating and sustaining co-teaching programs in their schools. Also included in this administrator training is a brief overview of content provided in the professional development sessions for teachers in the series, "Elevating Co-Teaching to Close the Achievement Gaps."

This administrator training highlights the following topics:

- Developing personal understanding and commitment
- Knowledge of the six co-teaching approaches
- Creating effective co-teaching partnerships
- Program development and implementation of co-teaching
- Evaluation of co-teaching programs and co-teachers
- Co-teaching Resources

Duration: 1 hour

Please note: The 3-part professional development series, "Elevating Co-Teaching to Close the Achievement Gaps," provides comprehensive training for school staff on effective co-teaching. Administrator participation in the 3-part series is also recommended.
