LIVE VIRTUAL COMPLIMENTARY PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOP VIA  ZOOM

Social Emotional Learning: Social Awareness After and the Pandemic Thursday, October 28, 2021

8:30-11:30 AM or 12:30-3:30 PM

Presented by Sunita Smith, M.A.
Technical Assistance Program (TAP) Consultants
Certified Trauma Support Specialists

Students, educators, and parents/caregivers and our entire community have faced a monumental task of managing stress, anxiety, fear, and tension with the appearance of COVID-19. Now, many schools are returning to regular full-time or hybrid schedules for the 2021-22 academic year with countless uncertainties ahead. This webinar will provide information, activities, and resources from the Collaborative and Academic Social Emotional (CASEL) Competencies to guide you through the complexities of helping students develop age-appropriate Social Awareness Skills:

Objectives include:

- Demonstrating empathy and compassion
- Showing concern for the feelings and circumstances of others
- Recognizing situational demands and opportunities
