

Administrative Leadership Development
Program
Application for Cohort 11 – August 2022-
July 2023

Cooperative Educational Services' Administrative Leadership Development Program (ALD) is a rigorous, practical administrative preparation program that also serves practicing Principals and new administrators to the District. Level II or III Educators or Related Service Providers who have been recommended by their Superintendent or Charter Leader, and who seek administrative license through PED are encouraged to apply for a one-year (September 2022 to August 2023) Cohort program which includes leadership courses and a local internship.

Eligible applicants will meet the following criteria:

- Three years of teaching experience
- Possess a Level IIA Teaching License or a Related Service License (please contact Evan Grasser or Gloria Rendon at leadershipdevelopment@ces.org for further clarification)
- Possess a Master's Degree from an accredited college or university with a minimum 3.0 Grade Point Average
- Commitment to work at least three years in your district or charter following completion of the program

The full application for Cohort 11 includes the following requirements:

- A recommendation from your Superintendent/Designee or Charter Leader (Directions for submittal are highlighted in yellow on the Recommendation form)
- Completed application page
- An updated resume
- An official transcript showing your Master's Degree
- A copy of your teaching license
- Philosophy of teaching and learning: Submit a 2-3 page, double-spaced explanation of your philosophy of student learning. Include information regarding your current work in education and the role school and district leaders play in closing the achievement gap.
- $750 per semester tuition -Total: $1500. This is not due until you have been notified that you've been accepted into the program. You will receive additional information regarding scheduling, etc. at that time.

Submit your entire completed application to <https://www.ces.org/administrators-leadership-development/> by June 30, 2022. Candidates will be contacted regarding acceptance into the program no later than July 15, 2022.
